

University Post Graduate College, OU, Secunderabad

Literary Club

The Literary Club is a haven for book lovers and word enthusiasts, providing a platform to explore the world of literature, foster critical thinking, and ignite creativity. Through lively discussions, debates, and analysis of various literary works, members delve into the realms of fiction, poetry, and drama, broadening their perspectives and understanding of different genres and styles. The club also offers opportunities for members to share their own writing, receive feedback, and hone their creative writing skills. With guest author talks, poetry readings, and book-themed events, the Literary Club creates a dynamic and inclusive environment where members can connect with fellow literature enthusiasts, discover new authors and genres, and cultivate a deeper appreciation for the written word.

Objectives

1. Encourage members to read widely and explore different genres and authors.
2. Develop critical thinking skills through discussions, debates, and analysis of literary works.
3. Offer opportunities for members to share their writing, receive feedback, and improve their creative writing skills.
4. Expose members to various literary styles, genres, and authors to broaden their understanding and appreciation.
5. Organize book clubs, author talks, poetry readings, and other events to create a vibrant literary community.
6. Encourage members to articulate their thoughts and opinions through discussions and presentations.
7. Connect members who share a passion for literature and provide a supportive environment for discussion and debate.
1. Partner with local organizations to promote literacy and support educational initiatives.
8. Explore connections between literature and other art forms, such as film, theater, and music.
9. Inspire members to continue exploring and learning through literature beyond their academic years.

Faculty Coordinator

Ms K Srujana, Department of English, 6304285087